

Leadership Development with Personal Agility

Discover, master, and deploy methods that make your team or organization more responsive.

Part of the “Unstoppable!” Program

For

Management and Leadership at all levels of the organization.

Lay the foundations for an innovative, responsive, and capable organization. Develop your own alternatives to classical command-and-control leadership.

Need

Many organizations are challenged to stay relevant to customers and attractive to staff. As much as 56% of company capacity may be lost to friction, bureaucracy, and inefficiency. Massive potential is just waiting to be enabled!

Organizational symptoms include:

- Everyone is very busy, but progress is slow.
- Too many meetings.
- Resistance to change.
- Excessive staff turnover.
- Challenged “agile” transformations.

Approach

Lead the change by being the change. Enhance your leadership skills to drive change that brings meaningful results to the organization.

Three modules to discover better ways to:

1. Lead yourself. Manage your time with the Personal Agility System to align your actions with your purpose while reducing or eliminating wasteful activities.
2. Lead Others. Learn and apply the Personal Agility Alignment Process to enable binding decisions, hold focus to achieve results, and reduce the need for control-based leadership.
3. Make it real. Apply your new skills in real life:
With our support, create a responsive,
dynamic culture by applying agile leadership principles with your leadership team or organization.
